Minnesota Timberwolves vs. Charlotte Hornets – Nov. 15, 2016

Timberwolves Head Coach Tom Thibodeau

On if tonight was a step backward...

"It's the commitment to improve and to learn, to not repeat the same mistakes over and over again. A big part of learning is trial and error, so when you go through something and it doesn't work you should learn from it -- the second time around it shouldn't be the same way. That has to change, that has to change and it has to change fast."

On youth not being an excuse...

"We could use youth as an excuse forever, your opponent doesn't care that you're young. We've got guys who've been in the league for a while now, we're making mistakes that never should be made – from fouling jump shooters, reckless passes, turnovers – it's all decision making."
